

Environ is a smart thermostat device that integrates with Enphase Enlighten® software. It allows owners to manage their heating and cooling system, along with their Enphase solar system through the Internet and mobile devices.

Environ connects to the Envoy Communications Gateway™ using the ZigBee wireless networking protocol.

COMFORT [ - Web-based climate controls & interface
- Simple & precise programming

CONVENIENCE [ - Easy installation
- Plug & play integration

CONVERGENCE [ - Integrates with Enphase solar system
- On-screen display of solar performance

ENVIRON TECHNICAL DATA

Features

- Controllable and programmable through thermostat display, web browser or smart phone
- Simple menu-driven programming
- Large backlit display
- Precise touch screen control
- 7-day programmability
- 7 time slots per day
- Programmable to +/- one degree
- Compatible with multi-stage heating and cooling, and hybrid systems

Installation Overview

- Unit measures 16 cm x 11 cm (6.25" W x 4.3" H). Plan for these dimensions.
- Remove old thermostat. Connect wires to Environ. Anchor to wall.
- Insert ZigBee USB stick into Envoy. Confirm detection of Environ.
- Log in to Enlighten to activate Environ. Start controlling indoor climate from the web.
- Consult the Environ Installation & Operation Manual for detailed instructions.

Ordering

Environ Thermostat Unit

Purchased at Enphase Authorized Distributors